Black Belt Essay - The Journey (A Parent's Perspective)

Take time and write out what your child's Black Belt journey has meant to you, as a parent, and some of the success and triumphs that you've seen your child go through. What hurdles did they have to overcome and how did they overcome them. What would you tell a parent of a new white belt about why their child should become a Black Belt?

Use the back if you need more space